OTHER MARRIAGES

by Ruby Compton

Claud Chase McDonald was born on March 17, 1913, in Heber, Utah, he was the second son born to Chase and Kathryn Devitt McDonald. Wayne, Clauds' older brother, was the first of 6 children, 3 boys and 3 girls.

Claud said that from his fathers' earliest memories he had worked for his older cousin, Jim Clyde, Jim's mother being a sister to Chase's father, William.

While herding sheep, for Jim Clyde, on the West Desert, Chase met Kathryn Devitt who had come from North Dakota to visit her aunt Mary Laird. They married and soon left sheep herding and took up a homestead at Talmage, Utah. Talmage is about 15 miles north of Duchesne, Utah.

Claud was just a baby when his parents started homesteading, and he said he learned all about pioneering, and that it was "a rough go."

Claud graduated from high school in Roosevelt, Utah.

In 1932, some people named Peterson moved to Talmage, they had a lovely daughter named Vera whom Claud married after graduation from high school. They moved to Park City, Utah where Claud had found work at the Old Park Consolidated mine.

Vera Peterson was born in Spanish Fork, Utah to Chris and Mary Pearl Ostler Peterson, on April 17, 1915. The family moved to Talmage, Utah in 1932, where Vera was courted by Claud McDonald, they were married in the LDS Salt Lake Temple on April 25, 1934. They moved to Park City where Claud worked in the mines. Their first child, a boy, was born in Park City. The depression got worse and the mines closed and they decided to go back to the farm in Talmage and wait out the depression. Their second son was
